

Narayana College Of Nursing
Chinthareddy Palem, Nellore, Andhra Pradesh
5th National Conference on Translational Research on 09.01.2016.

Educational Activity Evaluation Summary Report

The spot registration started at 8.00 am with Pre test and registration closed at 11.00 am. The total registered participants were 774 (Seven Hundred and Seventy four). The registered participants were faculties, nurses, students of M.Sc.(N), Post B.B.Sc.(N), B.Sc.(N). The External participants were 524 including students and internal 250 including students. The CNE was supported by Dr. NTR. University of Health Sciences, Vijayawada.

The programme inaugurated with prayer song and traditional lamp lighting programme at 9.00 am.

1st session: - The Scientific session started at 10.15 am. The topic was Introduction “Translational Research” by Dr. Indira. S, Ph.D., M.Sc. (N) Principal, Narayana College of Nursing, Nellore. The contents opted clear and understandable and after completion session felicitation was done to the resource persons.

2nd session: - The 2nd speaker started at 10.45 am. Dr. Radha Saini, ICMR, Fellow UICC Geneva was presented about “sampling techniques, It is very informative and effective and after completion session felicitation was done to the resource persons.

3rd session: - The resource person was Mrs. C.R. Shamshad Begum, Principal, Govt. College of Nursing, Hyderabad, AP. She presented about “Translational Research for quality health outcome”. It is inclusive of more models, thought provoking, more concise and relevant to topic and after completion session felicitation was done to the resource persons.

At 12.15 pm CD was released by all the resource persons.

4th session: - The resource person was Mrs. Roja Rani, Registrar, APNMC, Hyderabad, Andhra Pradesh. She presented about “Evidence based practice & health promotion”. The topic was more relevant and her voice was best audible. She presented with models, used innovative methods and after completion session felicitation was done to the resource persons.

5th session: - The speaker was Dr. Lalitha, Principal, NIMHANS, and Bangalore. Karnataka presented about “Nursing theories and research”. By her presentation the participants understand the application of theory in research and after completion session felicitation was done to the resource persons.

The lunch break was given to the participant at 1.30-2.30 pm.

The scientific session and Poster presentation started 2.00 pm, The poster presentation started at 2.00 pm. The college had displayed 9 posters in different aspects of Research, the posters were evaluated by Mrs. Roja Rani, M.Sc.(N), Registrar, APNMC, Hyderabad Andhra Pradesh and Mrs. C.R. Shamshad Begum, M.Sc.(N), Principal, Govt. College of Nursing, Hyderabad, A.P. Simultaneously scientific session in different halls by different moderators. Total 56 scientific papers (External 28 and Internal 28) in 8 halls were presented and evaluated by two moderators which were observed. There were total 8 posters (5 external, 3 internal) by 3 colleges.

Post lunch session started at 3.00 pm.

6th session: - the speaker was Dr. Latha Vekatesan, M.Sc.(N) Principal, Apollo College of Nursing, Chennai, Tamil Nadu. Presented about “Gap between research and practice, It was a good presentation and after completion session felicitation was done to the resource persons.

7th Session: - The speaker Dr. K. Y. Varalakshmi, Principal, Govt. College of Nursing, Tirupati. A.P. was presented about the “translational research continuum, the content was simple and clear with various modules.

8th session:- The 8th Speaker was Dr. Santhi Ramesh, M.Sc.(N), SRMC College of Nursing, Chennai. She presented about “Translational research for quality health models”. She discussed about phases of models in different types. It was very informative.

The CNE Post test and feedback at 5.15 pm followed that started Valedictory function. The organizer welcomed the gathering and special invitee Dr. Vijay Mohan Reddy, CEO, Narayana Medical College & Hospital. Dr. Indira S, Dr. Radha Saini, Dr. K.Y. Varalakshmi, and nominated observer of conference, Mrs. K. Rama Devi, Lecture (Incharge Principal), GCON Nellore, were present for valedictory function. Special addresses were given by Dr. Vijay Mohan Reddy, CEO, Narayana Medical College & Hospital, about the conference and translational research. 1st prize was given to the poster presentation. Certificates were distributed to all participants.

The programme was concluded by vote of thanks and National anthem by 6.00 pm.

Pre- test and post test Level of knowledge score

The pre- test structured questionnaires were conducted to 340 participants before starting the session and after completion of session we given post test structured questionnaire to 340 participants.

Frequency and percentage distribution of Pre test Level of knowledge among participants

- 7(2.5%) excellent knowledge
- 34(10%) had very good knowledge
- 141(41%) had good knowledge
- 158(46.5%) had average knowledge

POST TEST LEVEL OF KNOWLEDGE SCORES

- 54(16%) excellent knowledge

- 140(41%) had very good knowledge
- 78(23%) had good knowledge
- 68(20%) had average knowledge

FIG. 1: percentage distribution of Pre and Post test Level of knowledge among participants

The post test results shows that the delegates had gained more knowledge regarding translational research hence it is shown in above figure that post test knowledge level had improved more in excellent, very good.

On the whole the CNE programme was organized went on smoothly and very interesting informative effective, useful and enhanced the knowledge of participants.

The feedback about the CNE was collected from the participants

After completion of session we had given feedback to 340 participants.

FIG. 2: The Feedback Score of participants about the CNE.

Frequency and Percentage Distribution of Feedback on CNE among Participants:

The overall opinion on CNE shows that 46% had found appreciated by giving very good and 16% had found excellent, so total 62% of delegates found the CNE program was very useful. 22% of delegates found good, 9% had found average 7% had found Poor response on lack of time management, this will rectified in forthcoming CNE. Finally, The Conference was ended with Vote of Thanks and National Anthem.

Organizing secretary

Menaka S.P.
Associate professor, HOD,
Department Of Nursing Education

Organizing chairperson

Dr .Indira S Ph.d
Principal
Narayana College Of Nursing
Nellore

