On 14 .04.2011

Dr. Ruth Jackson, M.Sc.(N), PhD, Dean, Anglia Ruskin University, Cambridge, UK had visited Narayana Nursing Institutions, Chinthareddypalem, Nellore, A.P.

Message :

It has been wonderful to visit your institution and meet such an enthusiastic group of staff and students. The facilities are excellent and from the standard of care I saw in the Hospital wards you obviously maintain first class nurses. We look forward to our collaboration and learning from each other warmest regard.
