Policy Statement:

The Student Nurses Association (SNA) at Narayana College of Nursing aims to foster a supportive and collaborative environment where nursing students can enhance their professional development, leadership skills, and engagement within the nursing community. Through various activities and initiatives, the SNA helps students expand their knowledge beyond the classroom and participate actively in nursing-related extra-curricular activities. The association plays a key role in building a sense of professionalism, and personal growth among student nurses.

Aims of the Policy are to:

- a. Promote Professional Development: Encourage students to engage in activities that enhance their nursing knowledge and skills beyond the curriculum.
- b. Foster Leadership Skills: Provide opportunities for students to develop leadership qualities through participation in SNA events, community outreach, and collaborative projects.
- c. Create a Sense of Community: Build a strong network among students, faculty, and healthcare professionals, promoting teamwork and mutual support.
- d. Enhance Personal Growth: Support students in their personal development, self-confidence, and social skills through diverse activities and peer interactions.
- f. Encourage Participation in National and International Events: Facilitate student involvement in national and international nursing conferences, seminars, and competitions, to broaden their global perspectives.
- g. Strengthen College's Reputation: Enhance the image and ethos of the college through the active involvement of students in professional and community activities.

Guidelines:

- All nursing students are encouraged to become active members of the SNA and participate in its activities.
- A wide variety of events, including workshops, seminars, and community outreach, will be organized regularly for the benefit of students.
- All activities will be planned with attention to Health and Safety guidelines to ensure the well-being of participants.
- Student involvement in SNA activities will be recognized and celebrated through awards, certificates, and public acknowledgment.
- SNA events and activities will be planned and communicated to students on a termly basis, allowing sufficient time for participation and preparation.
- For activities that involve travel or off-campus participation, proper planning and adherence to the college's procedures for off-site events will be followed.

Steps to Ensure:

- Safeguarding and Welfare: All activities organized by the SNA will comply with safeguarding and welfare standards to ensure student safety.
- Qualified Staff and Mentors: Faculty members or external professionals with the necessary qualifications will be assigned to mentor and guide students in SNA-related activities.
- Health and Safety Compliance: All SNA events will be carried out in accordance with college health and safety policies, including risk assessments for off-campus activities.
