Narayana College of Nursing: OPTIMIZING THE STANDARD OF NURSING EDUCATION

The founder of Asia's largest educational conglomerate, Narayana Group of Educational Institutions, Dr. Praveena Narayana is an eminent name in the history of education. Ranging from residential schools to professional colleges and coaching centers, Dr. Narayana has left no stone unturned in the arena of academics. Initiated in 1979, today, Dr. Narayana has turned Narayana Group of Educational Institutions into an epitome of ultimate destination for students across the world.

Each institution under the shield of Narayana Group of Educational Institutions has embraced a distinct niche in their respective area. The organization has established numerous under its name in field like Medical, Dental, Physiotherapy, Engineering, IIT IAS Academy, B.Ed and so on. Remarkably, Narayana College of Nursing, which was initiated in 2002 and started functioning in 2004, has emerged as a pioneering institution for pursuing nursing education in India.

Started with merely 40 B.Sc nursing students, today, the institution is welcoming 250 students per year in varied courses. The courses offered in the institution covers almost everything from B.Sc degree to Post Basic B.Sc. Nursing and Post Basic Diploma Courses to Diploma in General Nursing and Midwifery. Following the guidelines of Indian Nursing Council (INC), the institution has designed several co-curricular activities apart from the regular curriculum.

For instance, students are involved to participate in programs like Enrichment and Continuing Nursing Education (CNE) on topics like: Robotic nursing, Therapeutic Transplantation, Schema Therapy and hosted International and National Conferences and so on, where both the teachers and students are provided insights on trending subjects in the industry. "The credit of our student's success to a great extent goes to the talented faculty members we have. They able to guide the students and evaluate them with the OSPE process, i.e.

Objective Structural Practical Evaluation," says Dr. Indira S., Principal, Narayana College of Nursing.

The Narayana College of Nursing has been awarded as 'Best Nursing College in A.P by Worldwide Achievers in the year 2015.

Narayana College of Nursing is well known for quality education for the bright future of the students. The Narayana College of Nursing holds university ranks every year in streams of B.Sc (N) & M.Sc (N) etc. The College also aims to improve the personality development of the students by conducting various academic events like Quiz, Panel Discussions, Debate, and Brain Storming Sessions and to improve sportive spirit by participating in the various games.

Dr. Indira S., Principal

Dr. Indira S. is the Principal of Narayana College of Nursing. She has 15 years of clinical and 18 years of teaching experience. She is also the editor in chief of Narayana Nursing College. To date, her research publication has been published in 87 National and International journals.
