

2.6.4. Presence and periodicity of parent-teachers meetings, remedial measures undertaken and outcome analysis:

Parents teachers meeting are conducted once a year in the college campus with in five months of academic year. About 90% of the parents attend the meeting. The main agenda for the meeting is emphasized on academic orientation and the performance of students, hostel rules and regulations, anti-ragging, sexual harassment, grievance redressal, personal issues that are affecting the academic performance and the role of parents in the education. The principal gives the introduction about the rules and regulations. During parents teacher meeting, register is maintained to collect the address and phone number of parents and guardians. Parents are encouraged to get clarifications and give suggestions to improve the performances of the students. As the parents are coming from other states, food is provided to all the parents and transportation will be arranged to drop in railway station. Parents are allowed to visit the classrooms, library and mess during the admission. The discussions and the matters to be resolved are noted and then it is discussed with the concerned committee and counteractive measures will be implemented.

Apart from this parents WhatsApp group is created, so that parents can express the problems and it is analyzed and rectification of issues will be done.
