COMMITTEE FOR ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

INTRODUCTION

Most of the students, after their education and departure are interested to know about their school or college and its activities and achievements. Similarly the institutions are also interested in the activities of the old students in order to satisfy the interest of both students and the institution, The Alumnae association is formed.

MEANING: An Alumni Association or on Alumnae association is an organized group of graduates from an educational institution.

Alumnus means an ex-student of the Institute, who has obtained a degree/diploma.

Philosophy:

We encourage ex-students to come back and meet with the students and share their experiences.

We serves as a means to present a platform for alumni to stay connected with the events and new happenings in their college and assist its development.

OBJECTIVES :

- To assist the institution to obtain necessary funds for various facilities
- To promote, strengthen and foster love and fellowship among our former students.
- To update the knowledge and skills in current trends of nursing.
- Becoming interested, well informed and active members of nursing profession, and work for the attainment of the objectives of the institution.
- To assist the students in their professional and personal growth.
- Helping individual member of the association
- To be useful and helpful member of society, planning for study group, discuss trends in nursing education and practice
- To endeavour, to seek the promotion and advancement of the nursing profession.
